MIMebù

Isabella wakes up suddenly.
She has a strange feeling,
as if she has lost something.
She looks around, checking
every corner of her bedroom.
Then she notices that the desk drawer is half-closed.
«Who opened it?» she asks himself.

She jumps out of bed and barefoot reaches the desk.
She pulls out the drawer and places it on the floor.
Inside she finds all her MEMORIES, her hidden treasure.

On her knees, holding her breath, Isabella checks to see if anything is missing. At first glance, none of her MEMORIES seem to have slipped out. She counts them one by one, because the MEMORIES are all in a mess, as if a hand had rummaged through the drawer.

The baby tooth has crawled into a snail's house,
the picture of her grandma is inside the pencil case and is stained red and blue.

The four-leaf clover found in the meadow is wrapped in the glittery paper of a chocolate. Isabella had picked it up one summer afternoon when she had gone for a walk in the country with her grandfather. «Look, a four-leaf clover!» he had exclaimed. «It will bring you luck.»
